

November 18th

Dear Parents,

This is a short week so there will only be two days of homework.

Next week there will be new spelling words. Most everyone did really well on the last test which had a combination of new and old words. It's time to move on. Next words will be brand new. Please stress letter sounds, especially vowel sounds with your child. This will help them to read and spell words.

Monday:

Language Arts: letter k

Math: pages 191 and 192

Tuesday:

Language Arts: letter l

Math: pages 197 and 198
